This appeal is preferred against the judgment of this Court in W.P.C.8836/05. We perused the report submitted by the 4th respondent which would disclose that an enquiry was conducted by the authorities and it would reveal that the petitioner is not the legally wedded wife of Sreedharan. So, the learned Single Judge found that the appellant/petitioner is not entitled to claim the assignment of property. We do not find any infirmity in the order of the learned Single Judge. The appeal, therefore, lacks merit and the same is dismissed. If the petitioner is so aggrieved may move the civil Court.
